

CO-PARENTING CLASS

Keeping Your Kids Out of the Middle

Presented by: BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

Join us!

When: Wednesday May 20 & May 27, 2026

Where: BGH Monarch Room:

423 N. 3rd Ave., Sandpoint

Time: 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Cost: Free

Register: by scanning this QR code, visiting our website at bonnergeneral.org or calling (208) 265 -1090

Tips, Tools, and Support for Keeping Your Kids Out of the Middle While Co-Parenting in Two Homes

Part 3. Creating Two Homes - Learn how to share responsibilities, set co-parenting ground rules, build mutual respect, and create a plan to move forward in two homes after separation.

Part 4. Adjusting and Setting Boundaries - Gain tools to adjust to a new normal, create a communication plan, set healthy boundaries, handle disagreements, and navigate co-parenting essentials.

Part 1. Preparation and Self Reflection - Participants will build a support team, learn ways to stay calm, and reflect on how to help their kids through big emotions.

Part 2. How to Share the News with Your Kids - Learn how to talk to your kids with confidence, answer tough questions, build their support team, and find helpful resources.

Led by Jill Hicks, L.C.P.C., and Jennifer Greve, M.A., this free class will provide valuable support to help you build a healthy, stable environment for your kids, along with practical tools, and strategies for successful co-parenting.